From the Desk of Father Kelm

I believe that what we pray gets into our bones, prayer after prayer, day by day. Lord have mercy gets into our bones. Standing alongside family, friends and strangers petitioning God and calling down God’s mercy, we begin to see ourselves linked as the mercy-needing ones. All of us with our sins and regrets. All of us in need of strength, blessing and rescue. All of us on the road. All of us who have had wine and oil poured on our wounds. All of us made neighbors in Jesus Christ. O God, Make us more than good; make us merciful. Make us mercy bearers. Make us bear the fruit of mercy. Beyond bloodlines, country and creed: make us mercy to all we meet.

Recharging Your Batteries

Want to know a little secret about how to liven up your life, rekindle energy, and brighten your outlook? Take a little vacation every day.

You don’t have to go to the mountains to ski, or the beach to swim, you simply have to spend some time each day doing something you really love. If you like to read, keep a book handy and lose yourself in an author you really like. If you like to sketch, keep a pad and pencil handy. The idea is to focus your full attention to this pleasurable activity.

It is very difficult for many of us to take time from our busy schedules for a typical vacation. But, if we took just 15 minutes from every day, that’s 91 hours a year, or two full weeks!

And what are we doing? Something we love. That is exhilarating, refreshing, revivifying. And that is what a vacation is supposed to do.

Take me, O Lord, in my quiet moments into the radiance of your presence.

Stewardship Thought

15th Sunday of Ordinary Time

“Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’ ” Luke 10:37 Jesus’ final comment at the end of the parable of the Good Samaritan is a strong moral: we are to love our neighbor. That does not just mean loving someone that we know and like or someone who looks like us or believes as we believe. It is a call to love all people – even those we don’t know and those who are different than us. And, to expect nothing in return for that love.
